CONTINUING TO MONITOR

Recent complaints of excessive Post Office waiting times

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@tindlenews.co.uk

WAITING times at Honiton Post Office are continuing to be monitored, it has been revealed.

As previously reported in Pulman's View, in November 2009 the branch came under scrutiny from Honiton Town Council which spent a week observing the post office and found that in some cases waiting times could be as much as 45 minutes.

As a result of the town council's observation a meeting attended by Post Office officials, Devon County Council (DCC), East Devon District Council and Postwatch, was called by town councillors and the post office pledged to slash waiting times.

At the time the Post Office said it had also identified several other initiatives in an effort to ease the situation in Honiton. These included — contacting all ebay customers asking them to avoid busy periods, the introduction of a travel desk and fast drop facility, setting up desks at specific times for individual tasks, reviewing the queuing route inside the branch and the introduction of a cash point outside the building.

However, several Honiton residents have been in contact with this newspaper to complain about excessive waiting times at the branch in recent weeks.

Speaking following the latest complaints about waiting times a spokesman for Honiton Town Council said: "This (waiting times at Honiton Post Office) is under constant review by the town council and its partners — DCC and Postwatch.

"If people are experiencing particularly bad waiting times I would be grateful if they could let the town council know so that we may follow it up."

A Post Office spokesman apologised to Honiton customers and confirmed that the branch is still working with Honiton Town Council in a bid to improve waiting times.

He said: "Post Office Ltd continues to monitor all aspects of customer service, including waiting times in branches. Certain post office transactions can take longer than others and offices can get busy at peak times and we apologise to customers for the inconvenience this causes.

"We have a great team at Honiton and they are all working extremely hard to serve customers as quickly as possible. We continue to monitor the branch as we do with all our offices."

◆ MEMBERS of Honiton Primary School 'Green Team' are pictured with tree surgeons Steve Findley and Stewart Priddle as the wooded area is cleared

Creating school in the forest

YOUNGSTERS at Honiton Primary School could soon be having classes in the great outdoors.

An area of woodland close to the school's Clapper Lane base is currently being cleared and once finished staff at the primary school hope to create a Forest School.

Greg Bottrill, Honiton Primary School sustainability leader, said: "Our vision is to create an outdoor learning space, to give children a greater knowledge of forest skills, strengthen their understanding of team work and enable our pupils to take a deeper interest in the natural world around them."

The felling is being carried out by Blackdown Environmental and youngsters are already coming up with suggestions and ideas for what will go in the woods once the felling is completed.

Mr Bottrill added: "We've had all kinds of ideas and it's been great to see the children thinking about reusing the felled trees as resources for the new woodland. An on-site forest school is a great opportunity for our children to experience something different and we want it to become an important part of our curriculum."

Police thank public's help

POLICE in Honiton say they would like to thank members of the public who helped them identify a man who had been kicking and attacking vehicles in Honiton High Street.

The incident took place in the evening of Thursday, February 24th, and officers in the town say the calls from the public led to the man being arrested.

A spokesman for Honiton police said: "The man caused alarm and distress to a number of passersby who had their vehicles kicked. The man also set off the alarm at WH Smith after throwing an item and lashing out at the window."

"Numerous calls were made to police, and a man was arrested nearby on suspicion of breaching his Antisocial Behaviour Order. The calls made to police were valuable in gaining evidence to support the arrest and to continue to tackle antisocial behaviour in the town."

"The attending officers were not able to speak to all witnesses in person but would like to pass on their appreciation."

Crew attends car accident

A FIRE crew from Honiton was called to reports of a crash on the A373 at Hembury Fort, Broadhembury.

The incident took place just before 6pm on Tuesday, February 22nd.

One car was involved and on arrival at the scene the fire crew found the driver and passengers free and clear of the vehicle.

Firefighters assisted the police in making the vehicle safe.

Caravan fire extinguished

A FIRE crew from Ottery St Mary was called to reports of a caravan fire in the Victoria Terrace area of the town.

The incident took place just after 4am on Thursday, February 24th.

The derelict caravan was 100 per cent damaged by the flames. The crew used two hose reels to extinguish the fire.

Councillor call

HONITON Town Council is urging residents to stand as a town councillor during the upcoming local elections.

As previously reported in Pulman's View, local elections will take place on Thursday, May 5th.

Lyn Hargood, Honiton town clerk, said: "Parish and town councils depend on local people taking an interest in what happens in their community, whatever their background, and local people standing as councillors can bring a wealth of knowledge and community understanding into the local team."

"If you are interested in becoming a councillor, or know someone who might just need some encouragement, now is the time to act, get the forms and send them off for the elections to be held on Thursday, May 5th."

For more information contact the town council on 01404 42957 or email town council@honiton.gov.uk. Councillors will also be handing out information at St Paul's on the morning of Saturday, March 5th.

Outstanding celebration as Ofsted praises school

STAFF and students at The King's School, Ottery St Mary, had an extra reason to celebrate the half term break.

At the beginning of last month Ofsted inspectors visited the school and the findings have just been released.

The inspection was carried out by Karl Sampson and in his report he judged the school to be outstanding.

He said: "The King's School is an outstanding school that not only allows students to reach high academic standards, but also to develop into confident articulate, caring and mature young adults."

"The school's high quality curriculum and extensive range of partnerships enable all students to access a wide range of opportunities which enhance their learning and personal development.

"Consequently, students' outcomes - their achievement and the wider aspects of their personal development - are all outstanding. Attainment is high and all students, including those in the sixth form, make at least good progress in their learning."

"The school truly lives up to its motto of Achievement for All and equality of opportunity is promoted exceptionally well throughout."

"The school provides a very high level of care, advice and guidance for groups of students and for individuals by working closely with a range of outside agencies and adopting a flexible and responsive structure to meet the full range of needs in the school."

The Ofsted report also praised the teaching standards and headteacher at the Barrack Road based school.

Mr Sampson added: "Teaching and learning are typically good and some lessons observed were outstanding. The most skilful teachers inspire and challenge students and ensure high levels of student participation."

"The headteacher has a clear and unwavering vision for the school built around its motto Achievement for All and the fulfilment of every student's potential."

Headteacher Faith Jarrett said she was delighted with the Ofsted findings and added: "Well done to all the staff, students and parents, past and present, who have contributed so much over the last three years to arrive at this judgement."

In order for the school to improve further staff have been asked to ensure teaching at the sixth form reaches outstanding standard. It is currently marked as good.

Historic status for local wheelwright

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

A COLYTON wheelwright has been presented with the Freedom of the City of London.

Greg Rowland went to City of London Guildhall on Monday, February 21st for an event described by the City of London as "one of the oldest surviving traditional ceremonies".

The Freedom of the City of London is closely associated with membership of the City livery companies, successors to the ancient guilds, which is why Mr Rowland applied.

He is set to become a liveryman of The Worshipful Company of Wheelwrights, for which City Freedom status is required. The Worshipful Company of Wheelwrights functions as a charitable body, as well as supporting the craft of wheel making.

Mr Rowland stressed that his status is different to honorary City Status.

He said: "In ancient terms, I have bought a licence to trade in the City of London." He has no plans to leave Colyton, though, and said the City Freedom status is needed if he is to progress and become a liveryman in the The Worshipful Company of Wheelwrights.

Mr Rowland said about the ceremony: "It was obviously a wonderful experience and it makes you really feel part of the history of the city."

According to the City of London, the medieval term 'freeman' meant someone who was not the property of a feudal lord, but enjoyed privileges such as the right to earn money and own land. Town dwellers who were protected by the charter of their town or city were often free — hence the term 'Freedom of the City'. Today most of the practical reasons for obtaining the Freedom of the City have disappeared but the City of London is keen to maintain the Freedom as a living tradition.

Man airlifted out from cave

COASTGUARDS airlifted a 60-year-old Colyton man out of Hooken Cave, near Beer, in the afternoon of Saturday, February 26th.

Hooken Cave is located approximately 150 feet from the clifftop and 80 feet above the coastpath at Hooken, near Beer Head.

The man, who was part of a 15-20-strong group, suffered chest pain.

Beer Coastguard station officer Terry Hoare said: "Ambulance requested Coastguard assistance after receiving a 999 call from another member of the the group, who had climbed up to the cave to study the bats.

"The air ambulance also attended and the crew assisted in the treatment of the casualty in the cave.

"The man had to be recovered on a stretcher from the cave.

"The two options we had were to lower a man down to the cave and then winch him and the casualty back up the cliff, or to request a helicopter capable of winching the stretcher out of the cave and into an aircraft.

"Rescue 169 from Chivenor was tasked as the Coastguard helicopter was unavailable due to a technical problem.

"The Beer Coastguard team prepared for a cliff recovery in case the aircraft could not get close enough to the cliff to be able to winch. The aircraft was able to winch a man down to the cave to prepare the casualty for an air evacuation.

"When the aircraft came back in to winch, it was within 40 feet of the cliff, a very difficult winching operation was completed and the stretcher with the man was taken into the aircraft and transferred to the RD&E Hospital. He was conscious and talking throughout."

◆ THE new play area in the centre of Millwey Rise at Axminster was officially opened on Friday. The chairman of Devon County Council, Christine Marsh, cuts the ribbon at the opening, along with members of the play area committee

A NEW and improved play area has been given the seal of approval by young Millwey Rise residents.

The official opening ceremony was staged on Friday, February 25th — and the new play area is the culmination of two years' joint working by Millwey Community Play Area Committee, East Devon District Council (EDDC), Axminster Town Council and Devon County Council (DCC).

The residents of Axminster were invited to vote on how they would like to see Section 106 money (developers' money from new homes in the area) to the tune of £50,000 spent in the town.

The Millwey Rise proposal, which featured the relocation of the previous play area near the football pitch, received the most votes.

Rise residents give new play area the thumbs-up

Having identified suitable land behind the Spar shop at First Avenue, Millwey, local residents formed a steering group which, together with EDDC, successfully put in a bid for another £50,000 from DCC through Playbuilder, a central government-funded scheme.

With £100,000 to spend on equipment, visits to Axminster schools were arranged and children and young people were asked what sort of things they liked to do so play companies could draw up designs based on their ideas. In July last year, EDDC organised a community play day, where children voted on which one of the three designs they wanted for their play area.

Hosting the official opening event, district councillor Jill Elson, who is EDDC's portfolio holder for communities, said: "It is so important that the views of the young people who will be enjoying the equipment were taken into account.

"This new, safe, facility is exactly what they wanted and I hope it will bring years of enjoyment to children living in the area.

Steve Eastland, Playbuilder project officer for DCC, added: "Of the remaining 13 Devon Playbuilder Projects, Millwey Play Area is the first to open in 2011.

"The quality of this park is a fitting tribute to all who have worked to make it happen and we wish the community, young and old alike, a lot of fun using it."

Family hound is finally found

A HUSBAND and wife had almost lost hope when a friend called to say their missing dog had been found.

Doug, a three-year-old Labrador, somehow escaped on Friday, February 18th.

His owner, Emma Grigg, said that Doug was tied up outside Boots in Seaton, but scarpered when spooked by workmen.

Emma and husband Stephen immediately orchestrated an attempt to find Doug.

They took out newspaper advertising, opened a Facebook page and put up posters in and around Seaton.

But there had been no reported sighting of their dog the following

Tuesday and they were starting to lose hope.

Their friend Natalie Gribble took a phone call on the Wednesday morning, though, which gave them all new hope.

Natalie had put up some posters with her number on, and it emerged that some residents at Swallowcliffe in Old Beer Road had seen a dog fitting the description in that area.

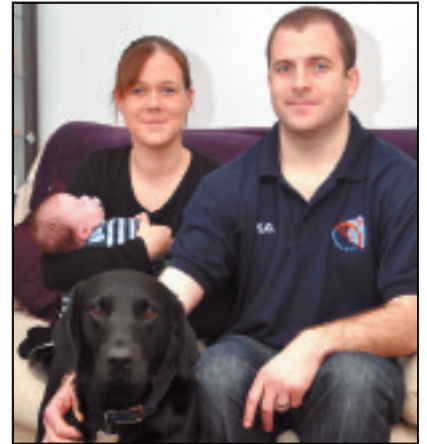

Natalie went over and found Doug roaming about in somebody's garden.

Emma said: "I just couldn't believe it. We didn't think we'd get him back, you lose hope after five days.

"We thought he'd got further, but are delighted he is back.

"He was hungry and tired and had lost a bit of weight, but was otherwise fine."

◆ FOLLOWING an advertisement in Pulman's View, the Grigg family have had their lost black Labrador returned after five days. Stephen and Emma Grigg, of Seaton, and their baby son Billy are pictured at home with Doug the dog on Saturday

Ex-students' reunion bid

TWO former pupils of St Michael's Senior School in Lyme Regis are planning a reunion bash.

Myra Murray (nee Toomer) and Frances Williams (nee White) are staging a reunion for former pupils born any time from 1945-1949.

The date is Saturday, June 18th and the venue is Pilot Boat, Lyme Regis.

Those in Frances and Myra's class all turn 65 at some point this year, and Myra said: "I thought it was a good idea to have it [the reunion] before we get too damned old."

"I have no idea what response we are going to get — but unless you try, you won't know."

A few people they have stayed in regular contact with have already accepted the invitation, but Myra and Frances are keen to hear from lots more.

Frances can be contacted on 01308 423 663 and Myra is on 01460 220 916 or minrat1@btinternet.com.

Date set for annual meet

AXMINSTER Museum's annual meeting has been pencilled in for Thursday, March 10th in the Masonic Hall, South Street.

The meeting starts at 7.30pm and the business part of the agenda will be followed by a talk named The Fascinating History of Lyme Regis Museum — to be given by curator Mary Goodwin.

Axminster Museum's Val Houghton said: "This is an open meeting and all are welcome to attend."

Libraries in on worldwide celebration of reading books

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@indienews.co.uk

LIBRARIES in Seaton, Ottery and Colyton are among those staging events as part of a reading celebration.

In partnership with schools, publishers and booksellers, Devon County Council's library service will contribute to a worldwide celebration of literature.

It will be achieved by holding a range of events during the first week in March including talks, quizzes and workshops as well as some free book giveaways.

The celebrations centre around World Book Day on Thursday March 3rd, which is recognised in more than 100 countries around the globe.

Children's authors and illustrators - including Neill Cameron and Claire Barker - will tour a number of libraries in the county to give talks about their work and host interactive workshops.

Mr Cameron's tour, for example, includes a visit to Seaton Library's young people drop-in session on Thursday, March 3rd from 5.15pm - 6.15pm.

The library in Ottery St Mary will host a World Book Day coffee morning on Friday, March 4th from 11am-12 noon.

Colyton Library is to hold a great book debate with the aim of creating a must read booklist' on Friday, March 4th from 6pm.

Devon County Councillor Stuart Barker, cabinet member with responsibility for the area's libraries, said: "Reading is a key life skill, and these events are a great opportunity to introduce children to the joy of books and encourage people to read more."

"I am delighted that our libraries will be involved in these exciting international events and will provide help in assisting book givers to gift their books to other residents."

"I would encourage everyone to go to their local library and see what events are happening to mark World Book Day and Night."

A full list of events taking place at libraries in Devon can be found online at www.devon.gov.uk/libraries or by calling 0845 155 1001 or by contacting your local library directly.

◆ SOME of the students promoting the series of Fairtrade events

Pupils plan series of events during Fairtrade Fortnight

A TEN-STRONG team of A2 business students at The Woodroffe School, Lyme Regis, are planning a series of events during Fairtrade Fortnight from February 28th-March 13th.

The aim is to raise awareness and money for Fairtrade Foundation.

Hannah Mackenzie and Anna Guest, both Year 13, are two of those involved.

In a joint-statement they said: "Fairtrade Foundation was established in 1992 by a variety of organisations such as Oxfam and Christian Aid and has helped around 7.5million people in the developing world.

"Fairtrade continues to work with businesses, community groups and individuals in poorer developed countries, by delivering sustainable livelihoods for the people of the working community, such as farmers."

One of the events is a Fairtrade wine tasting evening, which will take place at The Woodroffe School on Friday, March 11th - during which guests will have the opportunity to try different Fairtrade wines and nibbles sponsored by The Co-operative.

There will also be a tea and coffee morning at The Marine Theatre on Tuesday, March 8th where a variety of Fairtrade products can be tried.

More details about these events are available from Frankie on 07870 823314 or Jess on 07934 866868.

DCC welcomes pot hole repair government bid

By ANDERS LARSSON
anderson@findlenews.co.uk

DEVON County Council (DCC) chiefs have welcomed a government pot hole repair announcement, and hope to get at least £3.6million from it.

The government has announced that a sum of £100 million has been earmarked to deal with winter damage caused to the nation's roads.

Local authorities will find out next month what size their share will be.

DCC received £3.6million last year in a similar government handout, which was part of £11million spent by the council last year on reactive repairs and resurfacing of highways damaged by severe weather.

A record number of almost 200,000 potholes were fixed on Devon's 8,000 mile road network in 2010, compared with 40,000 in 2009.

Councillor Stuart Hughes, cabinet member for highways and transportation, said: "I'm pleased that the government has recognised that we need to continue with a sustained effort of repairs on our roads, following three consecutive harsh winters, and I have personally raised this issue with Transport Secretary Philip Hammond and Transport Minister Norman Baker in recent months.

"We have seen yet more damage appearing on our road network after the prolonged cold spell we endured in December, and our teams are continuing to respond to that.

"Repairing potholes remains an uphill battle in our county, simply because we have more roads to maintain than any other authority in the country, so a fair share of this money is much needed in Devon.

"We would hope to get at least the same, if not more than the £3.6million we received last year. Whatever the amount, it will be spent wisely and will be put to good use in Devon."

Devon County Council has earmarked more than £7million to be spent on pothole repairs for the coming financial year as part of its ongoing repair programme.

Potholes and safety defects on the county's roads can be reported online at www.devon.gov.uk or by calling 0845 155 1004.

MP calls constituents to contact via new website

AN east Devon MP is urging his constituents to get in touch with him via a new website.

Tiverton and Honiton MP Neil Parish is one of the first MPs to start using the website whistle.co.uk.

The site gives politicians the chance to interact with members of the public and it can also be used as a tool to promote campaigns that Mr Parish is working on.

In his first two blogs Mr Parish writes about animal welfare, biodiversity and climate change.

A spokesman for the online site said: "Whistle was set up to offer a one stop shop for political information, activism and debate in order to bridge the gap between politicians and people by making politics open, clear and relevant.

"It helps people communicate with their MPs, create their own campaigns and support the causes that matter to them.

"Constituents who sign up to the website can follow Mr Parish's updates, find out about his policies, debate local issues on the forums and start their own local campaigns on the causes section of the website.

"The Tiverton and Honiton constituency has 77,000 constituents but the average MP sees only 500 people a year at surgeries. Whistle will give thousands of constituents a greater opportunity to engage in a wider political debate."

For more information visit <http://whistle.co.uk/politician/neil-parish>.

Accessible ‘cafe’ church for everyone

OTTERY St Mary parish church will be the venue for a cafe-style church event on the second Sunday of every month.

The first church cafe took place on Sunday, February 13th, and the organisers are hoping it will encourage people to visit the church.

Reverend Simon Franklin, of the parish church, said: “Sometimes it can be quite daunting entering a church for a service of any type, especially if you don’t know what is expected of you.

“Cafe church stands for Church Accessible For Everyone, and the aim of this service is to welcome church and non-church goers alike to join together around tables enjoying good coffee and pastries — and to have the opportunity to discuss life issues in a Christian context.

“It will be a very informal gathering with quiet time for reflection and the opportunity to listen to and engage in thought provoking discussions in a safe environment. For children there will be a creche and group activities.”

Topics planned for future church cafe sessions include money management, bereavement, parenting and family life, faith and staying healthy.

Guest speakers will also be in attendance during many of the discussions that start at 11am.

Musical stage school kick-off

A YEAR-ROUND musical theatre school in Colyton will kick-off in April, with a dance teacher from Colyton Grammar School in charge.

Back to Broadway owners Mike and Sue Bearcroft were true to their word when saying the showbiz firm would retain a link with Colyton.

The not-for-profit theatre and cabaret company (profits are donated to children’s hospices across the UK) was based in Colyton for a number of years, but the Bearcrofts relocated home and office to Sherborne last year to be nearer London.

But they promised to retain a link with Colyton by having their flagship year-round theatre school there.

The company acquired a theatre school in Liverpool in 2009, which signalled a huge overall expansion and plans to set up a network of year-round schools took shape.

One will be in Colyton, in partnership with Colyton Grammar School, starting on Saturday, April 30th.

Jo Stratford, who already teaches dance at the school, has been chosen to manage the musical theatre school in Colyton.

Jo trained in theatre arts at Exeter College, and Mr Bearcroft said: “We firmly believe that training should be carried out by experienced professionals, either from performers, or performing arts teachers, to ensure the quality of our teaching.

“Our classes are for all, not just those seeking a career in the theatre. Everyone can benefit from working together as a team, and the confidence they gain, coupled with the skills they learn, will stand them in good stead for the future.”

The line-up also includes local singer Avril Best, who will teach vocal tuition, and Wellington-based performer Emma

◆ JO Stratford

Gabutt, who will concentrate on drama.

For the first half of the year pupils will base their tuition on the characters and storyline of the hit musical Grease.

After the summer break, they will focus on their end of year version of Grease as a fundraiser for Children’s Hospice South West.

In October 2011 the professional touring stage show Back to Broadway arrives at the Manor Pavilion Theatre Sidmouth, starring Gavin James Burke, who took the principal role in Joseph and the Amazing Technicolour Dreamcoat UK tour, Gina Price from international touring show Beyond the Barricade and artists from English and Welsh National Opera.

Students will have the opportunity to perform in the show alongside the professionals.

◆ KATHY Snow (standing), of Devon Education Business Partnership, with the group of students she coached

Students' day preparing for work

YEAR 11 students at Axminster Community College, Axminster, were drilled in various job hunting disciplines during a special event in Axminster Guildhall.

The college had invited a string of its business partners, whose representatives coached the students in everything from completing a job application form to appearing at a job interview.

The formal name of the event was The Work Preparation Day, and it took place on Thursday, February 17th.

Among companies agreeing to send representatives were Nu-Heat, Lloyds TSB, The Donkey Sanctuary, EDF Energy and Hedgehog Corner to mention only a few.

Prior to the event, Axminster

Community College business and enterprise co-ordinator Bridget Bennett said: "A great deal of planning and expense has gone into this day because we are certain of the relevance of the activities provided."

"Some students may feel uncertain about undertaking trial interviews but the whole day will take place in a relaxed and supportive atmosphere. All students will leave at the end of the day feeling more confident to face the reality of interviews in the future."

When asked if she found the information useful and if there had been any surprises so far, she said: "We've been gradually told at college [about the job application process], so it's not something we haven't heard of and it is not a shock to the system."

"It is really good of them [the business partners] to come in. The fact that we have been asked to dress formally makes it feel like a real occasion and gives a feeling of what it will be like in the outside world when we leave."

Joy Raymond, from Hedgehog Corner Bed and Breakfast, was one of the business partners present.

She said: "I thoroughly enjoyed my day with the students. I worked with a group of eight and what a bright lot they are."

"They were dressed to impress, conducted themselves in a thoroughly mature manner and contributed to the discussion in an interested and interesting manner."

"All credit to the teachers as I came home exhausted from just one day in their shoes."

Air ambulance chief's new role

◆ HELÉNA Holt with Hayden Newton, the chief executive of the East of England NHS Ambulance Trust and the outgoing chair of the AAA

DEVON Air Ambulance Trust chief executive Heléna Holt has been elected to chair of the Association of Air Ambulances (AAA) for the forthcoming year.

The AAA was established as a representative body for the air ambulance services in the UK.

Heléna said: "It's an honour to be elected by one's peers to this pivotal role.

"The importance of close co-operation between ambulance services and their local air ambulance operations is paramount in ensuring that patient well-being is the number one priority when responding to an incident."

"The AAA provides its members with a platform to share ideas and promote best practice."

"We have an agreed framework facilitating the delivery of high and consistent standard of sound governance, operational management and clinical excellence."

"The AAA also gives us a collective voice to promote the interests of the air ambulances to government and the NHS and, in so doing, to safeguard our primary mission of ensuring patient well-being."

A delicious menu at group's lunch

DELICIOUS fish pie was on the menu for the community lunch in Yacombe on Wednesday, February 16th followed by spicy, apple bread and butter pudding.

Diners included five ordained people and Kate Woolven was chosen to say grace and to thank everybody after the meal.

Unfortunately the speaker advertised to give a short talk afterwards was unable to come, but luckily Arthur Bryne who has installed the loop hearing system in the hall was able to give a demonstration as to how it works.

It came in very useful for Shirley Briant who entertained everybody later on with her jokes and her interpretation of poems by Pam Ayres and others.

The cooks this month were Caroline Ford, Heather Newman, Doreen Parris and Pam Foxwell, thank you all for providing such a lovely meal.

Thank you as well to all those who did the washing up as the dishwasher broke.

Hopefully this will be sorted out before next month's meal on Wednesday, March 16th which will be the Frugal Meal at the beginning of Lent.

All proceeds from this meal will be sent to the charity Talking2Minds.

This charity is dedicated to addressing the rising levels of post traumatic stress disorder experienced by serving and former members of the armed services, police and emergency services personnel.

Talking2Minds offers a unique therapeutic process that helps eradicate all symptoms of PTSD and helps sufferers regain their self worth, find their purpose in life and fulfil their potential.

Big cat talk opens a new debate on truth

TONY Jackson, long serving Pulman's View countryside correspondent, had a considerable surprise when he talked about Big Cats, Beasts and Birds at the February meeting of the Devonshire Association's Axe Valley branch.

He asked if anybody in his audience had actually seen a large cat in the east Devon landscape and clearly did not expect any such claim.

At which three observers quickly raised their arms asking to be heard.

The first listener told of seeing a "smallish sandy coated" puma-like cat at Lambert's Castle definitely too substantial to be a dog or any of the unobserved beasts hinted at in Mr Jackson's title.

The contributor was followed by a woman who said she had enjoyed a similar sighting from the top of a double decker bus travelling from Exeter.

A third listener claimed to have seen a black panther but this was dismissed by the speaker as less likely.

"All I can say is that you have been very lucky", added Mr Jackson.

Despite a long career as a field sports journalist and hunter naturalist he had never himself seen a big cat in the English countryside.

He nevertheless carried with him a sheaf of cuttings taken from local papers over the last 35 years, all returning to the big cat story and some graphically illustrated.

He retained some scepticism but thought that on balance there could be, or could have been, a tiny population of breeding big cats in Devon over the last 35 years.

Some might like to compare this story with that of the Loch Ness Monster in Scotland. For no good reason sightings of this non-existent creature were reported from 1869 to about 1963.

There was a more telling possible reason for the big cat reports of recent years. This was the passing of the 1976 Wild Animals Act.

At which several landowners who kept such creatures were thought to have taken the less expensive way out and released their beasts to the wild.

Mr Jackson said he had spent a lot of time hunting in Africa and had a special interest in spotting leopards as well as lions.

Yet despite his keenness he had only seen two leopards and this convinced him of the skill of big cats in hiding themselves.

It was a skill that could well be translated to British conditions. Another piece of evidence was shown in sheep kills blamed on cats.

The method used, leaping on the back of the prey and snapping its neck, was seen to be a copy of what lions did in their African killing fields.

On the other hand if our territory, south Somerset and west Dorset as well as Devon, had been full of big cats where were the bodies?

One puma skull was found in Devon in 2005 but it was hard to imagine that all the others, knowing they had reached their time to die, had found holes big enough to crawl into and hide themselves.

At which question Mr Jackson left the subject unresolved and ended his talk with a short postscript about the developing richness of bird life in the Axe Valley.

In the final meeting of the season, at Colyton's Peace Memorial on Wednesday, March 9th Axe Valley Branch members and guests will hear Pat Perryman on the History of the Honiton Lace Industry.

All business for meeting

FEBRUARY was a very well attended meeting with three new members and one visitor at Awliscombe Women's Institute.

Rosemary read the minutes and correspondence. Several members will be attending the spring Group meeting at Honiton in March.

In the county skittles the ladies will be playing against Tedburn St Mary.

Jill Goodes won the skittle cup for 2010.

Olive introduced Mr Walker who was in the police force for 30 years and now gives talks with slides on the Devon Air Ambulance Trust.

Devon is the only county with two ambulances carrying out 11,000 calls each year.

The charity is completely independent of central government and does not receive National Lottery funding. £4million is needed every year which is raised by voluntary contributions. Rita Tyers gave the vote of thanks.

The competition for a royal mug was won by Georgette Jameson with Julie Reece second and Pauline Ford third. The raffle was won by Brenda Abbott and Joyce Edwards. Julie Reece won the flower of the month with a lovely white camellia. The tea hostesses were Maggie Bream, Irene Maynard, Maureen Perry and Jean Pyle. Julie Spiller organised a sudoku quiz.

WI ladies enjoy pampering

THE speaker the February meeting of the Beer Women's Institute was Phil Davidson from the Charmouth Heritage Centre.

He gave an interesting talk on the Jurassic coast. Charmouth is the first natural world heritage site in England.

Some members went to Exeter College to be guinea pigs for the beauty therapy students.

The catering students provided a silver service lunch which was excellent.

A theatre trip to Plymouth with other members from the Seaton group was very enjoyable.

The sub-groups of cards, creative writing and skittles continue to flourish.

Meetings are held at the Mariners Hall, Beer, on the first Wednesday of the month at 7.30pm.

A sombre start to Phoenix gathering after member dies

THE meeting of Axminster Phoenix Ladies in February started on a sombre note with a one minute silence on hearing that a former member, Jessica Fox, had died.

Members then went on to discuss an outing for summer. Bowood House, Calne, and Lacock Village were picked and will be discussed more fully at an open meeting in March.

Also a short trip to Ferne Animal

Sanctuary may be viable as a new tea room is opening there soon.

Another topic for discussion will be where to have the annual Christmas lunch. The bring and buy at the meeting raised £22 and the raffle £23.

The speaker was Peter Tinney, who gave a hilarious reflection on his and his father's childhood.

The next meeting will be on March 9th when Linda Shepherd will talk about St Paul's Cathedral.

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

NEWS from Christian Aid has first place this week. At the annual meeting of the Seaton and District group they reported that they had raised £8,400 in 2010 — a little up on the previous year largely for the appeals for Pakistan and Haiti.

The group is looking now for support for the six Lent Coffee Mornings — Do something positive for Lent — being held at the United Reformed Church, Seaton, starting on Friday, March 11th and on each Friday until April 15th, with appeals for Pakistan and Haiti.

Sadly it is reported that the number of people attending these activities have been dwindling due to old age, and the recession and at the same time government cuts have not helped. So all are invited to support the shared fellowship by coming together with different churches. After many years of invaluable work at these events, in which he has helped raise over £250,000 for Christian Aid, Arthur Wright has retired this year.

Another event at Seaton, this time sponsored by Christians Together are joint Lent events for Sunday evenings starting on March 13th at the United Reformed Church beginning at 6.30pm with different speakers from CTIS Churches.

Other Lent events are the Women's World Day of Prayer on Friday, March 4th at 2.15pm at Colyton Church with address by the Revd Jeremy White.

Branscombe Church has started a study course of St Matthew's Gospel on Wednesday afternoons 2.30pm to 4pm at 5 Mill Lane.

Musbury has Lent Courses on Thursdays at 10.30am, from Thursday 17th March, enquiries call 01297 552711.

Honiton Deanery Synod meets for the first time this year at Seaton Methodist Church on Tuesday, March 15th at 7.30pm — all welcome — speaker will be the Exeter Diocesan Missioner The Revd Anna Norman Walker.

The Heritage Lottery Fund and English Heritage have announced that funds for urgent repairs for Grade I and II* listed buildings will not be cut this year.

News of other buildings has been an animated projection on the outside of Exeter Cathedral as part of the Exeter Film Festival, just concluded.

The city's history was depicted from the Vikings to the Second World War.

Weddings are in the news again, as the Church of England has taken issue with the reported Government intention to allow civil marriages in churches and other religious settings of all faiths.

The Archbishop of York, John Sentamu, has warned against forcing vicars to conduct such services.

For news, and dates of events covering all the parish churches of east Devon look at the Honiton Deanery website at www.honitondeanery.org.uk.

— As chosen by Pulman's View —

Stop talking on behalf of locals

EDITOR — I was born and have lived in Axminster for the past 47 years and I have had enough of people coming into our town thinking they can speak for the town when they are actually only putting their own bitter and twisted point of view.

One person in particular is Fred Wells. He has made his millions off the back of Axminster Carpet's good name. But now he has his full belly he spends a lot of his time speaking up against them trying to stop progress for the future of this great town by constantly griping about the factory and its plans to sell off some land to a developer to make some money which it has already stated will be put back into the business to secure the future for its employees and to provide new jobs for coming generations.

Who does he think spends money in this town supporting its local shops?

Certainly not the people who come into town to buy a carpet from his shop.

One more point Fred, I have been looking to buy a small piece of land over the last few years and your face has been seen at a lot of land auctions.

What are you up to?

You may have wormed your way into the local business community but you will never be a real local so do not try and speak for all of us as we, the locals, do not want or need you to.

Tesco delivery concerns

EDITOR — I am concerned about the delivery of materials for the forthcoming construction of Tesco's new store at Seaton.

The problems for contractors and the public caused by using the route from the A3052 to Seaton through Axmouth can easily be avoided or overcome by the building of a bridge-type construction to assist in the making of a road around Axmouth village.

The construction would be on the lines that the army use when transporting large trucks or tanks over uneven or wet terrain in wartime.

I suggest you or Tesco arrange with the army to build the structure and pay them for it.

I'm sure the military would be delighted to make some money out of the job.

Also expenditure could be kept to a minimum by getting the army to agree to take the unused or surplus materials back after the whole operation has been completed, at an agreed price.

This is a practical and pragmatic solution and should be thoroughly considered by all concerned.

Yours very sincerely and constructively

Thank you for transition help

EDITOR — I am writing to say thank you to Chris Davis for taking the first steps towards helping Honiton become a transition town.

I attended a town council meeting with Chris on Monday, February 21st supporting his proposal to hold a public meeting with the support of the town council, which was approved.

Vice-principal Iain Slade of Honiton Community College is also in support saying: "I would be in favour of, and happy to support a plan to create a sustainable Honiton group within the town."

Honiton is one of the last towns in east Devon to respond to the pressures of climate change and fossil fuel depletion as a united community.

Seaton, Ottery, Exmouth and Sidmouth already have transition initiatives, which we can learn from when developing our own.

We will be announcing details of the public meeting soon, in the meantime you can read more about transition towns on www.transitionnetwork.org and contact us if you would like to be involved at sdpavey@googlemail.com or call 07740973990.

Motorbike promotes hearing protection for Honiton residents

If you've not heard the news then maybe you should pop to New Street, Honiton to see what's going on. The Honiton Hearing Centre has introduced new window displays every month to heighten awareness of hearing protection and hearing aids. The latest includes a bright red motorbike, which is causing much interest and highlighting an important message. Hearing protection is the best way to reduce your chances of hearing loss in later years.

"Protection is provided in the workplace with a 80dB Health & Safety Executive limit", says Colin Eaton, Hearing Aid Audiologist at Honiton Hearing, "but we are seeing more hearing loss cases from recreational activities, including motorcycle riding, shooting and the playing of music". Most people think that a motorcycle helmet will protect their hearing, but in fact, it is the opposite. Riding your bike from Honiton to Exeter at 60mph will take approximately 30 minutes. Test results show this places

101dB (A) on your eardrums, even with a helmet on. Colin confirms, "Your daily limit of exposure, without damage, is 102dB for 30 minutes. Exceeding these limits can cause damage to the inner ear, resulting in temporary or permanent deafness, tinnitus and oversensitivity to various sounds". Colin has noticed that many of his retired clients were taking up DIY, gardening and music. Although on the outset these may seem harmless, machines such as strimmers and drills have the same long lasting effects on your ears. "Professional musicians are now aware of this and wear in-ear monitors, which restrict the sound levels reaching the ear whilst maintaining the correct pitch" Colin advises. "With in-ear playing, such as MP3's currently being researched to ensure that wearers do not exceed safe limits". Colin and Sam of Honiton Hearing Centre believe that prevention is better than cure and stock a wide range of in and out of ear protectors, including moulded models for the professional musicians amongst us.

They are happy to discuss the options available to you, matching the needs of your hobby, as well as offering the most protection.

Pop in, admire the window display, have a free hearing test and protect your hearing for the future ...

Have you got a builders question you need answered?

Each month in our homes and interiors feature we have a helpful section with Nick Whittaker of N J Whittaker Ltd in Honiton. He is an experienced and fully qualified builder who will answer your questions. This can be anything from DIY queries, a query about new laws and regulations, to a dispute with a builder you have at the moment.

Please either email your questions to kelly@tindlenews.co.uk or post them to Kelly Baker, Pulman's View, Tindle House, South Street, Axminster, Devon EX13 5AD.

Builders question from Mrs McGraw

I am going to have a new window put into my property and I've heard you need official approval for this is that true?

Answer:

Yes you will need to apply for building regulations approval from your local council unless the window installer is FENSA registered. You may also need listed building approval if your house is listed or in a conservation area. Your local planning authority should be consulted if in doubt. As you can see even the simple task of inserting a window in a house can be quite involved and that's before you even start!

French Antiques are our speciality

I wonder if the greatest asset of Alexander Paul Antiques is the extraordinary talent and capabilities of the restoration team or the stunning originality and quality of the beautiful antique French country dining tables we buy to restore.

I wrote last month of the joy and delight we felt to discover a magnificent French oak dining table over 9 foot long and 3 foot wide in the back of an old barn in rural France.

This table has now been fully restored to its former glory. Immediately attracting a lot of interest on our web site it sold within days to a Singapore businessman and is now on its way to Chianti in Italy.

We returned to the same area for some more furniture and discovered two more spectacular tables. The first was a table with the proportions one might expect to find in a monastic refectory; nearly ten feet long but narrow at thirty three inches. This too has sold quickly and we are now offering the second of the two tables we bought; a stunning example of the craftsmanship of the French country furniture makers dating from around 1820. The cleated top has three wide chestnut boards, there are three generous drawers and handsome stop chamfered square section legs (see picture). This table would look magnificent in any dining room setting, but be sure your room is big enough!

St Andrews church Feniton was under three foot of water in the devastating flood of October 2008.

Finally, after two and a half years of drying out and careful restoration, the church will reopen on 6th March with a service of celebration and a rededication of the church building by the Bishop of Crediton.

The Alexander Paul Antiques team was called in immediately the flood had subsided.

We removed the pews, some of which are over five hundred years old, for the slow process of natural drying out, prior to restoration and re-polishing; the floors came up the organ was permanently removed and much structural work has been carried out.

The church now looks magnificent, repainted and resplendent with the magnificent rude screen and pews all polished until they gleam!

Many of the fixed pews have been removed leaving a large versatile central space and the area which housed the old organ has been fitted with a fine and quality oak kitchen and modern catering facility

David Lanning is the church warden and has mentioned that the church is available for general community use and can be contacted on 01404 850699

With the recommendation of the church architect and church warden on the work we carried out on medieval pews and other furniture of St Andrews church, now would be a good time to mention that we offer our furniture restoration services to all. We have all the traditional skills needed to restore both modern and antique furniture.

and there you will find beautiful tables to sit from four to fourteen people; tables made from all the magnificent forest timbers like oak, ash, elm, beech and chestnut and timbers from the orchards as well such as cherry, walnut and pear.

Our tables are all in showroom condition, ready for your home so do take a look at our website or visit our showroom at Fenny Bridges near Honiton where we have all these beautiful tables on view.

My thoughts now turn to our forth coming trip to France next week..... I can't wait to see what we find.....I'll let you know next month!

Killer shrimp invades waters

NEWS that a "killer shrimp" is invading our waters highlights the fact that our wildlife is in a constant state of flux and change.

The shrimp, which stems from the Black and Caspian Seas area, has spread across most of Western Europe and has now been discovered in Cardiff Bay and a reservoir in Port Talbot. Growing up to 30mm, the shrimp has a voracious appetite and apparently kills prey, such as insect larvae, often without bothering to devour its victims. The fear is that if it spreads it will alter the food chain and, potentially, destroy the ecosystem.

The fact is, of course, that we are constantly providing a home and refuge for a wide range of creatures and have done so for thousands of years. A survey of our wildlife reveals some fascinating facts. Did you, I wonder, realise that the ubiquitous rabbit, a creature as familiar to us as the house mouse or rat, was imported into Britain from its native Spain and Morocco in the 12th century, to be kept in warrens as a source of food. Obviously, considerable numbers escaped from captivity to breed and established colonies in the wild. So the rabbit has only been with us for some 800 years, but longer, however, than the brown rat which only appeared in Europe via Russia in the 18th century, and though legend has it that the first rats to arrive in England hitched a lift on the boat that brought William of Orange to Torbay in 1688, following the departure of James II, it is far more likely that the pioneer brown rats arrived on ships from Russian ports around 1728.

The now rare black rat was also an invader, and is alleged to have entered this country in the baggage of returning Crusaders in the 12th century. By the 14th century it was so widely spread that it was the origin, via a flea it carried, of the dreadful Black Death. However, smaller and lighter than its brown cousin, the black rat quickly succumbed to the aggressive, larger animal and is now, I believe, almost extinct in Britain, existing perhaps on one or two islands and in a few ports.

Of the six species of deer in this country, it is believed that 2000 years ago when the Romans invaded only two were resident, namely the red deer and roe deer. The fallow, although it may have existed here up to the last Ice Age, did not reappear for some 10,000 years when it is believed that the species was brought to Britain by the Romans. Domesday Book (1086) records that there were over 31 parks in southern England holding fallow, and by the early 17th century the number had risen to 700 parks. Japanese sika deer were first introduced to England in 1860 and there was then, in the late 19th century a series of park introductions, resulting in numerous escapes and the establishment of wild populations, one of the largest of which is now in West Dorset. The two other deer species, muntjac and Chinese water deer, both stemmed from Woburn Park around the beginning of the last century. The former is now widespread in southern and midland counties and is now beginning to appear in the West Country.

The two most troublesome imports are the grey squirrel and mink. Both are a menace to so much of our truly native wildlife, such as red squirrels and water voles, and every effort must now be made to try and eradicate, or at the very least, contain them. There have been many other imports, such as little owls, Canada geese, mandarin ducks, French partridges and capercaillie. Some have thrived, whilst others, such as the capercaillie, have declined. On a larger scale, the latest import, one which was native to this country until 500 years ago, the wild boar, is now well established and rapidly spreading. Most of these immigrant have been man-introduced but I suspect that, with climate change, we will see an increasing number of birds, insects and marine life moving north to our milder climate. One has only to think of little egrets to emphasise this point.

Everything for the weekend

THE Haunting, a thrilling stage play based on some of Charles Dickens's most spine-tingling tales of the unexpected, is coming to the Theatre Royal in Plymouth and promises to take audiences on a journey to the very edge of terror.

In an ancient, crumbling mansion, sheltering from the howling winds that tear across the surrounding desolate moorland, two men stumble across a dark and terrifying secret that will change their lives forever.

When a young book dealer, David Filde, is employed by a former associate of his uncle to catalogue an impressive library, he finds an incredible array of rare and antiquated books.

But as a series of strange and unexplained events conspire to keep Filde from his work, he realises that if he is to convince his sceptical employer that the mysterious phenomena he is experiencing are real, they must journey together to the very edge of terror, and beyond, to discover the source of the ghostly night-time visitations.

One of TV's hottest young stars, Charlie Clements, plays the young book dealer and is best known for playing the role of Bradley Branning in Eastenders; joining the show in 2006, he won numerous awards for his performance. His dramatic death was the finale of the 25th anniversary live episode in February 2010, drawing audience viewing figures of nearly 17million people.

He is joined by Paul Nicholas, whose Bafta-nominated role of Vince Pinner in the classic sitcom Just Good Friends was a key chapter in a career that has successfully covered the full dramatic range.

He went on to rule the roost in the West End across the 90s, taking lead roles in a number of classic productions including Barnum, The Mysterious Mr Love and Catch Me If You Can, in addition to producing and starring in the all-time hit musical Singin' in the Rain.

The Haunting will run at the theatre from Monday, March 14th to Saturday, March 19th.

Mother's Day

Wine & Dine

What is it all about? What do you give to a mum who loves gardening?

MOTHERING Sunday is the equivalent of Mother's Day in other countries.

It has been celebrated in the UK on the fourth Sunday in Lent since at least the 16th century.

For a long time, it has been a day for giving thanks for all the things our mothers do for us.

This year Mothering Sunday falls on March 14.

So why is Mothering Sunday on different days each year?

Mothering Sunday is not a fixed day because it is always the middle Sunday in Lent (which lasts from Ash Wednesday to the day before Easter Sunday).

The History behind Mothering Sunday

Mothering Sunday was also known as "Refreshment Sunday" because the fasting rules for Lent were relaxed, in honour of the Feeding of the Five Thousand, a story in the Christian Bible.

No one is absolutely certain exactly how the idea of Mothering Sunday began, but we know that on this day, about 400 years ago, people who lived in little villages made a point of going, not to their local church, but to the nearest big church, to what was called the "Mother Church". Some would go to the nearest city to worship

People who visited their mother church would say they had gone "a mothering."

Young English girls and boys 'in service' were only allowed one day to visit their family each year. This was usually Mothering Sunday.

Often the housekeeper or cook would allow the maids to bake a cake to take home for their mother. Sometimes a gift of eggs, or flowers from the garden was allowed.

Flowers were traditional, as the young girls and boys would have to walk home to their village, and could gather them on their way through the fields.

How is Mothering Sunday celebrated in England?

Mothering Sunday is a time when children pay respect to their mothers. Children often give their mother's a gift and a card.

Many churches give the children in the congregation a little bunch of spring flowers during the Mothering Sunday service, to give to their mothers as a thank you for all their care and love throughout the year.

Mothers' Day

In Great Britain, in recent times Mothering Sunday has taken on the name and character of the US

Mothers Day.

The original meaning of Mothering Sunday in England has been largely lost.

Mothers Day in America is a fixed date and does not change from year to year like Mothering Sunday does in England.

Motherhood

IT is a privilege to be a mother.

Motherhood is the greatest blessing any woman can be blessed with.

Motherhood is a symbol of love, kindness and forgiveness.

A mother's touch is the first human touch in a child's life.

A mother's heart is filled with a never-tiring love for her children.

She lives and dies for them.

A mother is the most beautiful woman in the child's eyes. It is a mother's love, pure and unadulterated, which nourishes a child and helps them to see and understand the cruel and the harsh world where they are destined to spend the rest of their life.

Only a mother knows how it feels to be a mother.

WHAT would be the perfect Mother's Day present for a special Mum who loves gardening?

A box of chocolates or a bunch of flowers quickly disappear and are forgotten but the Royal Horticulture Society (RHS) has two long-lasting gift suggestions, both a click away on the RHS website.

The UK's leading garden charity has a range of botanical images of prints, illustrations and photographs from the archives of the world renowned RHS Lindley Library and RHS Herbarium, ranging from the early 18th century to the present day to buy.

For flower lovers there are beautiful botanical drawings and photographs of gardens; the wildlife enthusiast would appreciate the animal and insect images, while the history lover may enjoy the vibrant covers of 19th century nursery catalogues.

Purchasers have the option of just buying a single print or having it framed or printed on a canvas.

Prices range from £15 to £280, with profits being used to support the RHS.

The RHS Gift membership, which costs £49, helps support the Society with its many projects, including the Campaign for School Gardening, which has helped a million children enjoy the passion of gardening.

Benefits include: free one-to-one advice from our specialist advisory team for those niggling garden problems; wonderful days out with free entry to

RHS gardens at Wisley, Surrey; Rosemoor at Torrington, Devon; Harlow Carr in Harrogate and Hyde Hall in Essex; privileged and reduced price entry to RHS world famous flower shows including Chelsea, Tatton and Hampton Court; free subscription to The Garden magazine packed with great ideas and superb photography.

FILM

◆ JUSTIN Bieber and mother Pattie Mallette

CALL A DOCTOR — IT'S BIEBER FEVER

IN the space of two years, 16-year-old Justin Bieber has become pop music's cutest and brightest young thing, inspiring the kind of ear drum-perforating hysteria that greeted The Beatles and Take That in their heyday.

Caught in the eye of a storm, admittedly of his own making, the teenage singer-songwriter from Ontario in Canada seems remarkably down to earth and unaffected by the hordes of fans who track his every move via social networking websites.

That wholesome image as the boy-next-door is reinforced by Justin Bieber: Never Say Never 3D, a life-affirming behind the scenes documentary about the boy wonder's rise to fame — culminating in his first concert at Madison Square Gardens in New York.

If you believe Jon Chu's film — and let us not forget this is a recording company marketing tool to preach to the Beliebers and swell the flock — the singer is well protected from the media glare by a team of people which resembles one big, happy family.

So you have a tour bus crammed with bodyguard Kenny Hamilton, who doesn't leave Justin's side, vocal coach Jan Smith, stylist Ryan Good, tour general manager Allison Kaye and manager Scooter, who gets all misty-eyed when he says to the camera: "To think, the 12-year-old kid I found on YouTube is going to be at the Garden..."

The boy's father appears briefly but the film glosses over the breakdown of the relationship with Justin's mother Pattie Mallette, who has raised him single-handedly since she was 18.

In heart-warming scenes, Ryan and Allison find youngsters who weren't able to get tickets and surprise them with front row seats as a thank you for creating hype when US radio stations stubbornly refused to play his music.

Chu structures his film as a diary of the 10 days leading up to the New York concert, during which time Justin's vocal chords become inflamed.

One date on the tour is cancelled, stoking anxiety that the youngster might not be fit to perform, providing the necessary dramatic tension. YouTube videos, home movies and photographs are intercut with interviews with his ardent fans.

Concert footage attests to Bieber's ability to sing live including U Smile with backing from Boyz II Men, a duet of Overboard with Miley Cyrus, a remix of Somebody To Love featuring Usher and the infuriatingly catchy Baby.

Call a doctor — I may have contracted Bieber fever.

OUT & ABOUT

● THE Sheldon Singers silver jubilee year programme has been announced. Musical director Julie De'Ath Lancaster said: "The theme for the year is celebration and joy, so our spring concert on May 7th at St Paul's, Honiton, will feature both the Vivaldi and Poulenc Glorias.

"And we are fortunate to have secured the services of the internationally renowned organist Phillip Scriven to accompany the choir."

Another international composer and organist, David Ogden, has been commissioned to mark the jubilee by writing a piece of choral music for the singers, which will be premiered in St Paul's at their Christmas concert on December 17th.

Whilst the choir does not guarantee flashlights and a red carpet on the High Street, members are promising lashings of celebratory brass amid their ever popular festive programme.

In addition, the choir joins with Exeter Cathedral Singers for an open air charity concert, Last night of the Proms, on July 2nd at Cory Hill in Combe Raleigh.

It is a frenetic year for the now 45-strong Honiton choir, born 25 years ago as a small group of friends gathered round the font at St James's Church Sheldon.

● CHARDSTOCK Amateur Dramatic Society will be performing Snow White on Friday and Saturday, March 4th and 5th.

Shows take place at 3pm and 7.30pm in Chardstock Community Hall. Doors will open 30 minutes before each performance.

Tickets cost £6 for adults and £4 for children and can be purchased from Chardstock Post Office and Stores. Alternatively call 01460 221067 or email chardstockads@hotmail.co.uk.

A bar, raffle and refreshments will be available during the show.

● COLYTON and Colyford's Cancer Research UK group is staging its annual big breakfast in Colyton Town Hall on Friday March 4th from 7.30am-2pm.

The price will be £6 for a full three-course breakfast, including tea or coffee.

A group spokesperson said: "We will look forward to seeing you all again for breakfast, and thank you for all the support you have given us for Cancer Research UK's big breakfast over the years.

AUDI has gone to even greater lengths to cocoon A8 passengers in comfort in long wheelbase versions of the lightweight aluminium-bodied luxury saloon, the first examples of which have just reached the UK.

Available from £60,010, the five-strong A8 L range incorporates an additional 130mm of wheelbase and body length to provide even more passenger accommodation. It is also further refined by a 6.3-litre, twelve cylinder W12 flagship model that is exclusive to the long wheelbase line-up.

Like the 'standard wheelbase' A8, the lengthened luxury saloon is made predominantly from aluminium in the interest of efficiency, comfort and driving agility. This approach reduces weight by around 40 per cent compared with an all-steel equivalent, and provides the very best operating conditions for the five engines that power the range — the 3.0-litre TDI, the 4.2-litre TDI, the supercharged 3.0-litre TFSI, the 4.2-litre FSI and the heavily reworked W12.

In the W12, comfort is taken to even greater extremes by replacing the standard rear seat arrangement with two individual sculpted rear seats which can be heated and feature fore/aft adjustable bases and angle adjustable backrests.

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

Runners battle gloopy mud

AFTER the recent downpours, plenty of gloopy mud was guaranteed at the undulating Dalwood Three Hills race on Sunday.

More than 150 runners set off in the sunshine with just a hint of showers arriving later. At the end of the first three miles of squelchy fields and river crossings the mini-challenge finished at the village hall as the main race runners continued along the road to the first of the hills.

Cheery marshals guided runners through the twists and turns, up the gruelling inclines and down the speedy slopes.

Overlooking Dalwood is the final peak where matchstick-sized competitors clambered before hurtling down the steep slope and across the river to the finish line.

The winner of the Three Hills

Challenge was Tom Merson from Bristol and West in a time of 1:07:48. First male veteran, first Axe Valley Runner, and second home was Patrick Devine-Wright in 1:10:57.

Eleanor Wood bounded across the river to finish in 1:33:58 and to win the first Female 50 trophy.

The winner of the three-mile mini challenge was Reuben Heeler-Frood of Honiton Running Club in a time of 28:22.

Axe Valley Runners who raced were Marianne Sweetland, who came sixth in 35:55 and Harry Moore, 10th in 1:09:13.

All the runners enjoyed tea and homemade cakes in the village hall as cheques were presented to Seaton Scouts and Devon Air Ambulance.

Thanks went to all the organisers including Garry Perratt who checked the course beforehand and timed the event.

On Saturday, Liam Roberts raced in the Cannon Hill park run in Birmingham. The conditions were quite miserable and the course was littered with puddles.

As the race is held in a public park there were also a number of dog-walkers on the course, adding to the challenge of racing.

Liam finished third — out of 103 — in a time of 16:06 with the race being won by Mathew Jackson of Warrington Running Club in 15:20.

On Sunday Luke Reed took part in his first race of the season, the Taunton Deane Aquathlon.

The race consists of a 1000m pool swim and a 10k road run. Luke completed the swim including transition in 17:27 and finished the undulating run in 37:34 giving him an overall time of 55:01 and 14th place.

Luke is now being coached by 2009 National Triathlon Coach of the year Rob Moore. Luke is currently training towards two half Ironman events, in Majorca and the UK this summer.

April's Exe to Axe race is arguably tougher than the Grizzly, being the same distance with noticeably more climb. But it's just not tough enough for some.

Three Axe Valley Runners had planned to run it in the dark the week before last but a forecast of heavy rain and worry about an injured knee put them off so they pootled around Musbury and Colyton instead.

But something was lacking so last Friday they went for it, the forecast of heavy rain notwithstanding.

Garry Perratt, Phil Bayliss and Alex Todd left Exmouth at 6.30pm in surprisingly warm conditions with not a sign of rain. They met Exmouth's Jon Croome and Jim Pyne halfway to Budleigh and the quintet rolled on at a surprisingly brisk pace to Sidmouth where Jon, Jim and Alex stopped, according to plan.

After a spot of refuelling Garry and Phil pressed onwards and upwards and into the clag.

Visibility on all but the low ground was down to 15 feet or so so navigation was challenging to say the least but the pair kept a close eye on fence lines and hedgerows, the sea on their right and the wind behind them.

They treated themselves to walking all the way out of Branscombe Mouth and soon the lights of Seaton were to be seen as they dropped round Beer Head.

The forecast rain duly arrived as they ran into the village but it couldn't dampen their spirits, and they reached Seaton Tramway car park at 10.25pm.

AXE CLIFF GOLF CLUB

LAST Sunday the main club competed for the February Stableford in fair conditions resulting in some good scores.

Winner of Division One was Stuart Mackie (10) with 40 points with a better back nine than Simon Vincent (9) also with 40 points. Third place went to Club Captain Richard Gibbons (9) with 38 points. The Second Division winner was Mat Yates (13) with 40 points once again with a better back nine than Alan Cooper (16) also with 40 points. Peter Petherbridge (13) was in third place with 38 points.

The Seniors' postponed Christmas Stableford, one of the highlights of the annual programme, finally took place last Friday on a misty morning accompanied by a raw easterly breeze.

A large field was divided into two sections, A, handicaps up to 19, and B, handicaps of 20 to 28. The winner of the latter section, with the best score of the day, was Alan Vincent (21) with 36 points, second place went to John W. White (21) with 35 points and third to Bob Berry (28) with 34 points.

The scoring in the A sections could not match the above with the two top players scoring only 32 points. On countback first place went to John Mant (18) with Gerry Turner (10) having to settle for second place.

Third spot with 31 points went to Iain Bain (14). The Seniors' Captain, Gilbert Cox was unable to take part himself but presented not only the prizes to the winners but in addition a bottle of wine to all the participants. Norman Bowles sank his putt on the 11th to record the only two of the day.

HONITON GOLF CLUB

HONITON has a new club captain. He took over his duties formally at a dinner last Thursday, that saw Anne Davies presented with a silver salver for her sterling work in her duties as president of the club.

He was then presented to the club on Sunday at the captain's drive in. Of course the members all know who he is as he's been acting vice captain all year, has captained and given help to the junior section which resulted in enabling his son Jason to achieve professional status.

This year Tim's replacement as vice captain is Paul Dimond and a mighty duo they already make. To honour the day the club played a four-ball better ball game with two scores to count.

The eventual winners, Paul Coates, Terry Dimond, Andy Ford and Paul Hill romped home with a massive 84 points. Wooley Richie, Tony Denne, Alan Seager and Jason Gosling were a valiant second with 79 points ahead of Mark Gillard, James Drew, Rob Willey and Dan Noar on count back.

At the actual drive in Tim was joined by new ladies' captain Sue Richie, seniors' captain Bill Nicholls and junior captain Ollie Cave, all of whom managed to overcome the stress of getting the ball on the fairway in very few shots — Ollie taking just one mighty drive.

Tim took a mere three with Mike Godfrey winning the whisky for having the marker nearest to where the ball arrested. Tim's charity for the year is Hospiscare and we wish him well in his duties after this very bright start.

Tuesday Mixed

This week members played for the Mixed Greensomes Stableford Golets, drawn for partners. 20 members participated with the competition being played over 14 holes.

The best score of the day and winning the Golets for February with 29 points were Ro Poole and Allan Seager. In second place with 27 points were Gerda Brown and Jason Gosling. Third place was lady captain Sue Ritchie and Mike Watts. The Mixed Fours Golfer of the Year Cup for 2010 was won by Gerda Brown. The cup was presented to Gerda by Sue Ritchie.

Ladies' section

In spite of the mist and rain, 27 ladies braved the elements on Wednesday and headed out for a shot-gun start 14-hole competition.

Teams of three played a stableford, two scores to count, fun game which began in high spirits, and as the weather improved so did the scoring.

First with an excellent score of 61 points were Lesley Oxenham, Sharon Dacre and Linda Northover. Second place, with another good score of 59 points, were Chris Pearce, Jan Lloyd and Elizabeth Davies. Trisha Swindell, Anne Davies and Gill Johns made third place with a very respectable 56 points.

Seniors' Section

By way of light relief it was a Texas Scramble competition for the seniors this week.

Unusually it was played in pairs and the weather was kind. First out of the traps were the Super Mario boys on their Karts, Bob Bilyard and Mike Kent. Speeding round the course they were first in posting an impressive score of 58 with a strong performance over the later holes.

Alas it was not enough as the brothers Stroud struck with a 56. They are not really brothers but Mike and Don complemented each other perfectly in what could be the start of a useful relationship.

Unlucky to be pipped on count back Peter Shepherd and Ashley Murray also recorded a 56 for second place. Mr Consistent — Bob Cleal — partnered by Peter Blake were third with 56.5, just ahead of Vic Wood and Trevor Bradley and Keith Thomas and Bob Underwood both on 57.

◆ CLUB captain Tim Avery with ladies' captain Sue Richie, seniors' captain Bill Nicholls and junior captain Oliver Cave

HONITON RUNNING CLUB

ON Saturday, the final stage of the East Devon Junior Cross Country Race series took place at Morganhayes Wood.

This is a contest between Axe Valley, Honiton and Sidmouth junior runners. The weather forecast was reasonable and thankfully, the rain cleared before the start.

There were several different length races which appropriately aged juniors ran.

All runners set off together and the different races ought to have separated at certain points. Unfortunately, this didn't happen and it was only the under 11s who actually ran the correct route.

Marshals along the way improvised as best they could and everyone completed a good race.

A huge thank you to everyone who helped but especially John Burgess and Garry Perratt who organised the event so well.

DEVON AND EXETER LEAGUE

WITH just two Premier matches surviving the bad weather the focus fell on Division One where Feniton produced an astonishing 7-0 win at Chagford to ease their relegation fears.

The moormen had floored Feniton 6-0 in the first encounter back in November, but Penny really got their own back with a stunning effort and man of the match Charlie Selley getting a hat-trick. Paul Dowling, Dan Lewis, Richard Austin and an own goal completed the win for Feniton.

Sidmouth Reserves worked hard to better a winless Axminster Town Reserves 2-0, Craig Badcock and Jack Lewis scoring.

Keith Lane netted the winner for Upton in their 2-1 win against Winkleigh.

Morchard Bishop Reserves were winners at Feniton Thirds in Division Eight where Phil Greenslade and Sam Andrews both scored twice.

SEATON YOUTH

Seaton A U11 9
Colyton U11 1

ALL action was the order with only playing a six-a-side game because of the Colyton's team shortages taught Seaton to pass and play superbly.

Thomas Bush was the first to score a hat-trick with Lewis Franklin scoring four and Lewis Pearson and Will Campbell not wanting to be left out of the action. Scott Pavey was brilliant in defence. Thomas Driver, the newest member, was outstanding for only his second game.

Colyton tried hard but Seaton outplayed them. Although there were only nine goals on the sheet, loads of opportunities were missed. Man of the match was Thomas Bush.

PERRY STREET LEAGUE ROUND-UP

DRAMATIC GOAL GETS MISTERTON A PLACE IN FINAL

By KEVIN FAHEY

sport.pulmans@tindlenews.co.uk

A DRAMATIC extra time winner by Connor Fletcher secured Misterton Reserves' place in the final of the Billy Bailey Cup next month.

Fletcher struck in the dying minutes of the extra period to clinch the 4-3 win over Combe A and leave manager Adge Diment hoping for a re-match against Winsham Reserves in the final.

"Winsham play Crewkerne Reserves in their semi final (on Saturday March 5th) and while I have no particular preference it would be nice to face Winsham because they beat us 2-1 in the final of the John Fowler Cup and it would be good to get our revenge," said Diment.

Misterton made hard work of their win after throwing away a 3-0 lead at half time following goals from Steve Ball, Neil Hawkins and Dan Peach.

"They equalised in the final minute of normal time but then Connor won it for us with a brilliant volley," added Diment.

The finalists of the Reg Eglon Cup have already been decided with Chard United Reserves facing Waytown Hounds. Chard booked their spot in the final with a tight 3-2 win at Barrington thanks to two goals from Luke Finn and a third from Ricky Haimes.

Waytown Hounds cruised to a 3-0 win over Thorncombe Reserves with goals from Mike Whitfield, Tom Rutland and Lee Hansford.

Beaminston Reserves kept alive their hopes of a Division Two league and cup double after reaching the semi finals of the Jack Venn Cup with an 8-0 thrashing of Crewkerne Rangers.

Josh Hunter was the star performer with four goals while Richie

Middleton, Ross Pickett and Ashley Hall also chipped in to set up a semi final clash against Dowlsh and Donyatt, who beat Hawkchurch 6-3 after extra time.

South Petherton Reserves also booked their spot in the final four with a 3-1 win over Forton Rangers Reserves thanks to goals from Ashley Smith (two) and Owen Jary. In the semi final on April 2nd they will take on Shepton Beauchamp, who edged out Uplyme 2-1.

The Daisy Hutchings Cup is still in its early stages but Pymore marched into the second round with a 5-1 thumping of Millwey Rise Reserves thanks to two goals from Rob Walter, one each from Alex Goodrich and Cameron Murless (penalty) and an own goal.

"They shocked us with the opening goal but then we scored twice in a minute and were always in control," said Pymore boss Matt Tither.

In the Arthur Gage Cup Millwey Rise boss Shane Featherstone was disappointed with the 5-2 defeat at Crewkerne Town.

"They deserved to win but we had the chances to win the game but didn't take them," groaned Featherstone.

Featherstone himself and Matt Vaughan scored for Millwey with Barry Hayne scoring twice for Crewkerne, who also had Jamie Spurdle, Kev Wheeler and Paul Gold on the score sheet. Crewkerne now face Forton Rangers in the semi finals after they beat Winsham 2-1.

In the Premier Division Farway United eased away from the relegation scrap with a 4-0 win at Misterton thanks to two goals from Ben Williams and further strikes from Matt Reed and David Dare.

"It wasn't pretty but that was a solid performance," said Farway boss Andy Bailey.

UNITED

WITH their eagerly awaited league clash away to Hatherleigh called off Axmouth were glad of a cup game on Sunday having played once in three weeks — and how it showed.

In a shocking opening 17 minutes against visiting Lymptone Axmouth found themselves three goals down after terrible defending.

It was only then that the home side started to play and realised they had a game on their hands and duly dominated the rest of the game eventually running out comfortable 7-3 winners as fitness and class told in the end and in truth Axmouth could have scored several more.

Stuart Aykroyd started the comeback after 19 minutes with a great strike quickly followed by an Ashley Poynton goal to make it 3-2 half way through the half.

The home side created many more chances but were wasteful and the away keeper made a number of fine saves keeping them 3-2 ahead at the break.

Axmouth were so much on top that the visitors had only one effort in second half as the home side found the scoring touch and were rampant.

A Jamie Hughes penalty levelled it and further strikes from Joe Berry, Asa Sandman, Charlie Clarke and Christian Burridge made it 7-3 with seven different scorers.

Apart from the opening spell Axmouth were in fine form and earned a quarter final tie with local rivals Beer Albion.

OTTERY manager Dane Bunney is hoping to persuade Brian Barnden to re-think his decision to quit as chairman.

Before Saturday's game at home to league leaders Liverton United Barnden and club secretary Lisa Quigley both announced they were stepping down from the committee, Quigley for personal reasons and Barnden for a number of factors.

Bunney believes one of those factors is due to constant sniping from people on the sidelines which the manager feels is unwarranted after all the hard work that Barnden has done since becoming chairman.

"I know that along with many other Ottery officials, I'll be spending the next few days trying to persuade Brian to stay on board with the club," said Bunney.

As for Saturday's match the disappointment of the 5-0 defeat was compounded by the sending off of Jamie Jones when the Otters were already two goals down.

From then on there was no way back as the Liverton stretched their lead to seven points at the top of the league.

TIGERS' HOME TO BE FEARED

New manager's pledge for club's much-needed revival

By KEVIN FAHEY
sport.pulmans@findlenews.co.uk

*Carlsberg South West Peninsula
League Division 1 East
Axminster Town 1
Bickleigh 1*

NEW Axminster manager Nick Ogden is determined to make Sector Lane a ground to be feared again.

Two wins and a draw since his arrival at the club to succeed James Bennett have helped restore some credibility to the division's basement side and, while in the short-term that may not be enough to stave off relegation, Ogden knows that the club's long-term revival will have to be built at home.

"I am still confident that we won't finish bottom of the division and to achieve that we have to turn Sector

◆ NICK Ogden

Lane into a fortress," said Ogden.

"When I was manager at Offwell we went 14 months without losing a game at home and that is what I want to try and repeat at Axminster Town."

After Ben Turner hit the crossbar it took a late Richie Emmett equaliser to salvage a deserved point from Saturday's game that closes the gap to Crediton United to four points though the Tigers have played two more games.

"We are coming from a long way back but what Kevin Turner (assistant manager) and myself are trying to do is instil some confidence and belief in the side and also make us difficult to beat at home," added Ogden.

"Yes we have changed a few things tactically and brought in one or two new players but at the end of the day the improvement is all down to the players.

"I am very proud of what they have done so far."

Bickleigh took the lead in the 75th minute through Stuart Vokes and must have sensed a first win in four games but Axminster are made of sterner stuff now and clawed their way back for another hard-earned point.
